The categorization, ranking and time limits stated in the preceding paragraph shall be approved by VAC.

The time limits stated in Paragraph I are valid from the date of retired or demobilized from military service.

Article 3

The veterans referred to the Act, except medical care, who meet the requirements of assistance for employment, home-care, or education, shall apply one of these assistances during the same period of time.

Article 4

The employment assistance for retired servicemen as prescribed by Article 5 of the Act shall be processed in accordance with the following:

1. The production organizations established by and affiliated to the VAC shall be restricted to hiring retired servicemen only, unless the necessary specialized positions in which no appropriate retired servicemen can be enlisted to fit.

2. To the positions in other governmental organizations, state-owned enterprises, and schools, VAC shall negotiate with the related authorities over these positions to approve the employment.

3. To the positions in civil associations, private corporations, enterprises, and private schools, VAC shall negotiate for employments; with those entities receiving special subsidies or loans from the government, the relevant authorities shall negotiate for the employment.

Those retired servicemen assisted by VAC with employment, if found incapable by the employer entity, with grounds, to fit in the position, the latter can negotiate with VAC to make other recommendations for the employment.

Article 5

If the land, ponds, and swamp, necessary for allotting to the retired servicemen for employment purpose, as prescribed by Article 7 of the Act, are of new reclaimed sea bed, forest, hills, uncultivated fields, deserted creeks, and other unmeasured and unregistered deserted land, shall be proposed with certain boundaries by the relevant authority and submitted to the Executive Yuan for approval to be transferred to VAC for utilization. Unless they have been undergone the land general registration which will mandate the allotment process as prescribed by Article 26 of the Land Act, the formal allotment process can be done after they are developed, measured, and registered.

The forest and mining areas owned by the State and needed for the purpose to assist the retired servicemen in employment shall be negotiated by VAC with the relevant authorities for consent on the boundaries. After being approved by the Executive Yuan, these areas are to be transferred to VAC for utilization.

Article 6

The production organizations, affiliated to VAC, and are of governmental structures, shall be exempted from presenting the entity license, profit-making business registration, and taxation documents, when entering biddings prescribed by Article 8 of the Act.

Article 7

The exploitation, construction, and manufacture organizations established by the Government, as prescribed by Article 9 of the Act, shall give priority to the retired servicemen to be selected to the work force. Except the organizations, which have existed before the promulgation and implementation of the Act, and of which the vacancies shall be filled by the retired servicemen recommended by VAC, the wanted vacancies of the organizations established after the promulgation and implementation of the Act, shall be coordinated by the relevant authorities with VAC for employments.

The transportation and shipping business of the aforesaid organizations that often needs to be delegated to other agencies for implementation shall be delegated to the transportation and shipping agencies established by VAC for implementation.
